Electronic Church Contributions

Electronic church contributions are given through your checking or savings account. Through your authorization (form below), you have the ease and assurance of your weekly, semi-monthly or monthly contributions being made without using your envelopes and also benefit if you travel or do not want to use your checkbook weekly. If you have any questions, please call the Parish Office. Your donation will still be credited to you for your yearly tax return.

Please consider this as authorization for St. Basil Catholic Church to debit my account using the information below:
